Purchase of Mount Cenis and La Touraine Leads Brisk Residential Trading.

Samuel Brener, president of the Brensam Realty Company, has bought the six story Mount Cenis elevator apartment house, at the southwest corner of Morningside Drive and 116th street, from John Griffith, and from Frederick Brown La Touraine, a similar structure adjoining on the northwest corner of Morningside Drive and 115th street. This gives Mr. Brener control of the entire block facing the Drive between 115th and 116th streets, fronting 202 feet on the Drive, 90 feet on 116th street and 85 feet on 115th street. The houses, which are opposite Columbia University, contain forty-eight apartments and were held at about $200,000 each. Mr. Brown bought La Touraine from a chient of William C. & Edward Lester early in May. Mr. Griffith bought the Mount Cenis recently from H. W. Gennerich, Yesterday's deals were negotiated by Spotts & Starr. Julius H. Zieser represented Mr. Brown, and Goldsmith & Rosenthal represented Mr. Brener.
